The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind Chapter I, Articles 1 and 2 as well as Chapter VI of the Charter of the United Nations concerning the Pacific Settlement of Disputes,

Affirming that in the interest of international peace and security, both nuclear and non-nuclear-weapon states must carry the responsibility of acting in accordance with the UN Charter, especially that the sovereign equality of all states shall be respected,

Strongly believing that the threat or use of force in international relations shall be refrained from and that international disputes shall be settled by peaceful means,

Taking into consideration the difficulties posed by nuclear weapons,

Recalling its resolutions, 1665 (XVI) of 4 December 1961, 2028 (XX) of 19 November 1965, 2149 (XXI) of 4 November 1966, 2153 A (XXVI) of 17 November 1966, as well as 2346 A (XXII), of 19 December 1967,

Convinced by the improved approval rate of bilateral treaties, leading to a higher effectiveness in their implementation,

Convinced of the urgency and great importance of preventing the spread of nuclear weapons and of intensifying bilateral cooperation,

Deeply alarmed by the threat of nuclear weapons in the possession of terrorist organizations and the trade on the black market,

Reaffirming the commitment to realizing a world free of nuclear testing, nuclear weapons and nuclear arms of any kind, maintaining global peace and preventing any nuclear danger which could come from possessing these arms,

Acknowledging the importance of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), which operates independently of the United Nations, and provides international safeguards against misuse of nuclear technology and nuclear material and promotes nuclear safety,

Appreciating the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear-Weapons (NPT) of 1968 whose objective is to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons and weapons technology, to promote cooperation in the peaceful uses of nuclear energy, and to further the goal of achieving nuclear disarmament and general and complete disarmament,

Recognizing the multilateral Comprehensive Test-Ban-Treaty (CTBT) which bans all nuclear tests, for both civilian and military purpose,

Noting with satisfaction the commitment of some Member States to only use nuclear weapons in a case of self-defense also known as the Non-First Use (NFU) pledge, Emphasizing the importance of the New Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty (New START) dealing with topics such as maintaining and extending the current regulations between the Russian Federation and the United States of America as well as including the People’s Republic of China into the cooperation,

Expressing appreciation for the International Convention for the Suppression of Acts of Nuclear Terrorism, criminalizing acts of nuclear terrorism and promoting police and judicial cooperation to prevent and combat such,

1. Recommends all Member States to sign and ratify the NPT as well as the CTBT;

2. Appreciates every nation committing itself to the NFU pledge;

3. Calls upon the Security Council to condemn all governments threatening to use Nuclear Weapons against other UN member states;

4. Further calls upon the Security Council to impose sanctions against states disregarding measurements set forth above;

5. Suggests all Member States to take action on safeguarding nuclear weapons against terrorist organizations and the black market, by:
   a. Collaborating with the IAEA for supervision, focusing on:
      i. Security standards of nuclear power plants as well as on nuclear weapon sites;
      ii. The imports and export of highly enriched uranium (HEU);
      iii. International security breaches by nuclear attacks;
      iv. Monitoring nuclear enrichment plants;
      v. Monitoring each state’s compliance to the signed and ratified treaties;
      vi. Assisting the government on their way to nuclear disarmament;
   b. Utilizing national armed forces to secure facilities:
      i. Storing nuclear warheads;
      ii. Enriching uranium;
      iii. Transporting HEU;

6. Strongly suggests bilateral talks aiming for bilateral treaties to ease tensions between the conflict parties, such as, but not limited to talks between:
   a. The State of Israel and the Islamic Republic of Iran, set in Moscow taking place within one year of the adoption of this resolution;
   b. The Republic of India and Pakistan, set in Washington DC taking place within one year of the adoption of this resolution;
   c. The Republic of Korea and the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, set in Ho Chi Minh City taking place within one year of the adoption of this resolution;

7. Endorses the establishment of constructive bilateral cooperation through the treaties set forth in the clause above, establishing international norms concerning nuclear disarmament and leading to peace;

8. Proposes, in case, bilateral talks mentioned above will not yield result, creating a 30-year-plan, applying for those parties unable to reach a conclusion in which:
   a. Nuclear Weapon States (NWS) reduce nuclear weapons by:
i. 10% of the stockpile of December 2019 in the following five years;

ii. 20% of the stockpile of December 2019 every five years afterwards;

b. NWS decrease nuclear weapon production by:

i. 10% in the following five years;

ii. 20% from 2024 to 2029;

c. Reporting to IAEA once a year on the progress is mandatory;

9. Proposes closer cooperation of nuclear technology possessing states with the IAEA and other Member States that want to pursue nuclear energy for civil use;

10. Encourages all NWS to withdraw their nuclear warheads to their own territory, including the affiliated airspace and sea territory, unless the countries accommodating the warheads gives consent to the stationing;

11. Strongly appreciates the talks between the People’s Republic of China, the Russian Federation and the United States of America considering an agreement on prolonging the START for five more years starting in 2021 and extending it to the People’s Republic of China by:

   a. Maintaining present regulations for all signees;

   b. Including cooperation in terms of the tactical delivery systems of the signees;

12. Further appreciates bilateral negotiations between the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and the Republic of India concerning the Kashmir and recommends to:

   a. Remove troops in Kashmir 6,000 by Pakistan and 600,000 by India;

   b. Increase the amount of Blue Helmet soldiers by 65,000 soldiers;

   c. Implement a Referendum on the status of Kashmir supervised by the International Foundation for Electoral Systems;

   d. Sign a treaty by the respective countries to secure non-interference considering the Referendum on Kashmir.
